Working Together:

Mission Valley will be having a book fair this week in the library. Feel free to attend the book fair after school, or before or after your parent/teacher conference.

Parent conferences begin tomorrow in the classroom. If you are unable to meet at your scheduled time, please let me know ASAP. I'm looking forward to sharing your child's progress with you.

This will be a busy week in Kindergarten. We will have a lot of fun.

Have a great week.
